

Digital Stories Guided Viewing Questions

What are your first thoughts or reactions to the digital story?

What words or images stood out to you?

Did the digital story influence your thinking about early intervention?

After seeing the video; are there things that you will do differently in the future?

Either working with families or within your own family?

What resonates with you after viewing this digital story?

In closing: final thoughts or suggestions?